APRIL-JULY IMPORT AT 81.2 MILLION TONNE

Crude import bill declines by 18%

ARUNIMA BHARADWAJ
New Delhi, August 17

INDIA'S CRUDE IMPORT bill declined by 18% to $40.4 billion in the first four months of FY26, compared with $49 billion in the year-ago period, according to data from the government's petroleum planning and analysis cell.

The country imported 81.2 million tonne of crude oil during April to July, marginal down from 81.7 million tonne in the same period of previous fiscal. India's reliance on crude oil imports increased to 88.8% during the period, up from 88.1% in April-July of 2024, amid rising demand.

In July, the country imported 18.6 million tonne of crude oil, against 19.4 million tonne in the year-ago period.

The import bill for last month stood at $9.5 billion, down from $11.5 billion in the same period last year.

The decline in the import bill can be attributed to discounted Russian barrels. However, with the US tariff of 50% looming, India might need to rethink its crude supply strategy.

US President Donald Trump has announced an additional penalty of 25% on

CHEAP RUSSIAN OIL PLAYS ITS PART

■ Reliance on crude oil imports increased to 88.8%, up from 88.1% in year-ago period

■ Decline in the import bill can be attributed to discounted Russian barrels

■ Russian crude continues to trade at a meaningful discount to Middle Eastern OSP-linked grades

India above the 25% tariff already existing for buying Russian oil – a move that could severely disrupt Indian supplies while also resulting in a potential increase in the import bill as the country will lose its access to discounted barrels.

Experts say it is unlikely that Indian refiners will voluntarily halt Russian crude imports in the absence of a clear government directive. Russian barrels— particularly Urals — offer a combination of technical compatibility, favourable yield profiles and strong refining margins that make them an attractive feed-stock within the current refining slate. Russian crude continues to trade at a meaningful discount to Middle Eastern OSP-linked grades, helping refiners maintain margin resilience, as per analysts. This cost advantage has been central to India's refining and fuel export competitiveness.

Safeguard duty on steel products to be extended for three years

MUKESH JAGOTA
New Delhi, August 17

INDIA'S TRADE DEFENCE arm, the Directorate General of Trade Remedies (DGTR), has recommended a 12% safeguard duty on imports of certain varieties of steel for the next three years.

The recommendation, issued late last night, confirms the provisional 12% safeguard duty imposed on April 21 this year for 200 days on the same products. The DGTR's findings will now be considered and notified by the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) under the Department of Revenue.

Hot rolled coils, sheets and plates, hot rolled plate mill plates, cold rolled coils and sheets, metallic coated steel coils and sheets, and colour coated coils and sheets have been covered by this order.

However, if the import price of these five products is above the price mentioned in order, then no safeguard duty will be imposed.
